

AKADĒMEIA THEATRE

Presents

THE GUIDES

A Staged Reading of a New Play

by

Lionelle Hamanaka

Lionelle Hamanaka is a playwright, writer and journalist who has had productions and staged readings off-off Broadway in New York, one at Damrosch Park Lincoln Center out of doors, and radio play, who studied with Ernie Martin, Howard Pflanzner, Kathleen Potts, and won the Stark Prize for Drama at CCNY.

DIRECTOR

Angélica Rivera

DRAMATURGE

Kathleen Potts

CAST

BEN HALPERNAlexie Cruz
JIMMY RIVERA.....Daniel Echevarria
HANK LOFTIS.....Geoff Lee
KENNY DOUGLASDante Montgomery
EDIE GAREEBilha Njuguna
MIKE KAZANTAKISLuis Brandon Torres
GARY MILLER..... Hal Weiner
CLEO WATKINS..... Angelica Williams
STAGE DIRECTIONS Geoffrey Kinsey

ABOUT THE PLAY

The Guides is a stirring homage to the tour guides of New York City; their struggles and devotion to welcoming over 50 million tourists, introducing them to the history, dazzling sights, shows and stars that grace our great city.

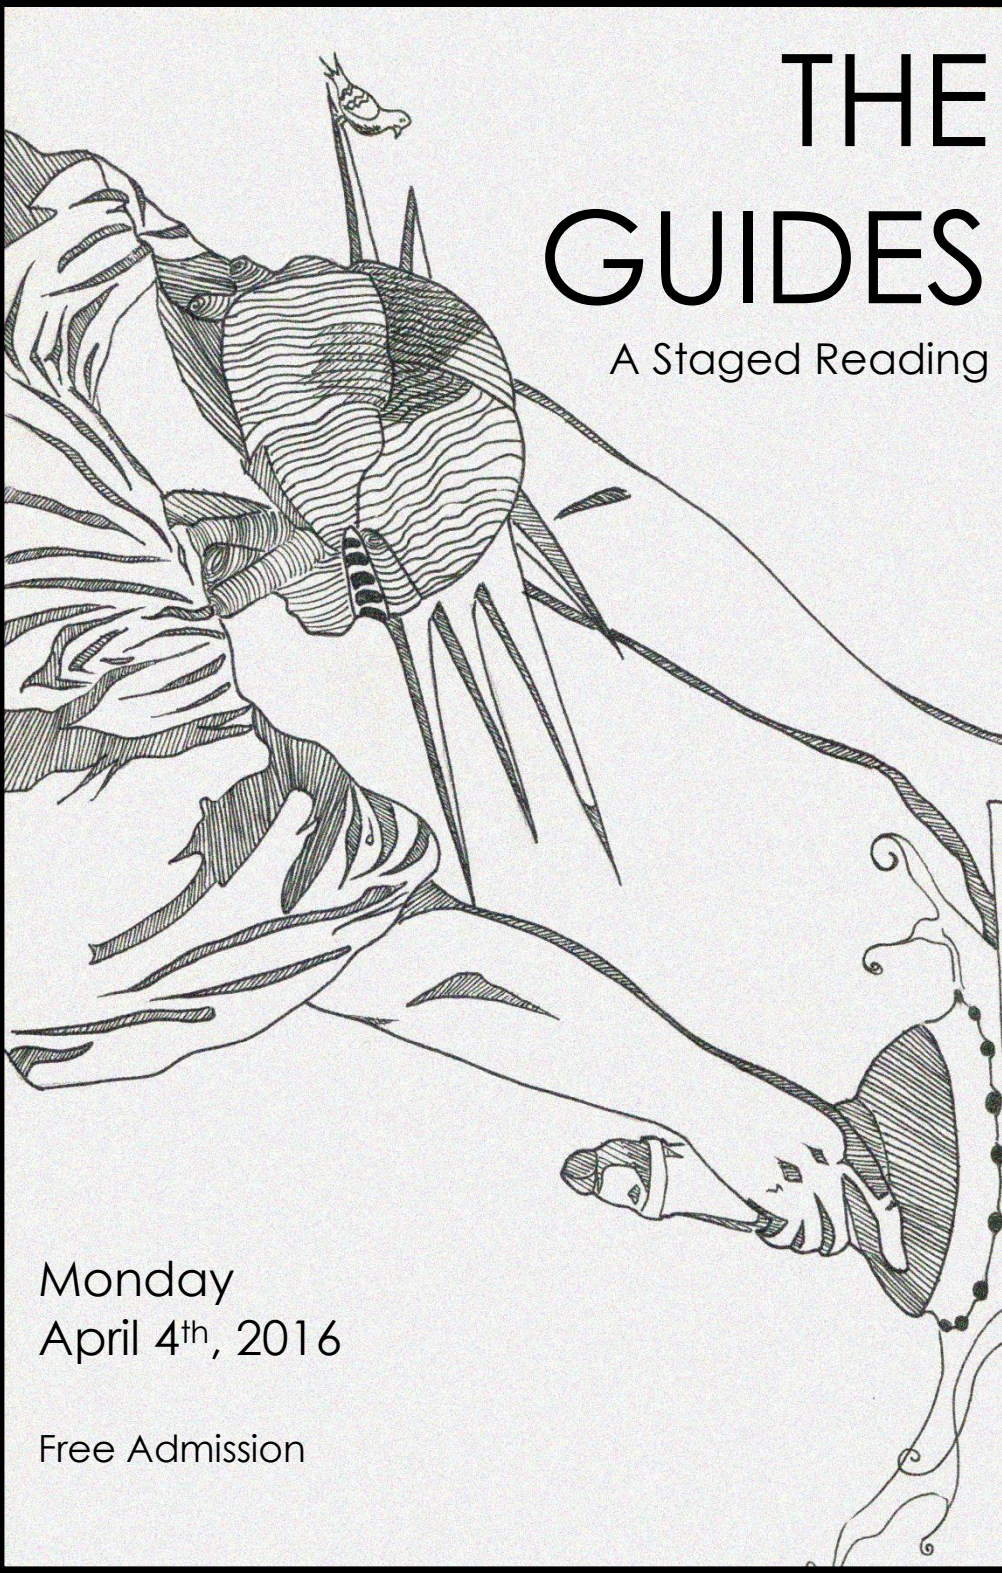

SETTING

New York City

TIME

2015

Feel free to join us after the reading, for a talk back with the playwright!

THE GUIDES

A Staged Reading

Monday
April 4th, 2016

Free Admission